Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Popular Magazine of Anthropology, 1866, Vol. 1 There are persons who appear to be wilfully blind as to what is going on in Europe with regard to anthropological science. Some refuse to believe that a veritable science of man has already taken both a deep and firm root in this country. Others, having already had a glimmer of its vast extent and importance, are earnestly seeking for further information. There are also those who believe that anthropology is essentially a practical science, and that the diffusion of the results of anthropological research are eminently calculated to benefit all classes of society, and all races of man. The object of our present undertaking is to endeavour to keep pace with the rapid development of the science, and to supply to the masses of the reading public an account of some of the more important discoveries in anthropology. We belong to that class of anthropologists who believe that there is an urgent demand at this time for a more general diffusion of the facts at present...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is written in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
