Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Patriotic and American Songs The Star Spangled Banner Oh! say can you see, by the dawn s early light, What so proudly we hail d by the twilight s last gleaming, Whose bright stars and broad stripes, thro the clouds of the fight, O er the ramparts we watch d, were so gallantly streaming; And the rocket s red glare, the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there Chorus. Oh! say does that star spangled banner yet wave, O er the land of the free and the home of the brave. On the shore dimly seen thro the mists of the deep, Where the foe s haughty host in dread silence reposes What is that which the breeze, o er the towering steep, As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses? Now it catches the gleam of the morning s first beam, In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream. Cho. - Tis the star spangled banner, O long may it wave, O er the land of the free and the home of the brave. And where is that band, who so vauntingly swore, That the havoc of war and the battle s confusion, A home and a country should leave us no more? Their blood has wash d out their foul footstep s pollution; No refuge could save the hireling and slave From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave. Cho. - And the star spangled banner in triumph doth wave, O er the land of the free and the home of the brave. Oh! thus be it ever when free-men shall...
