Erziehung, - (University of Dodoma), Sprache: Deutsch, Abstract: Management of family involvement in the early childhood education is important because early childhood years are the period during which children acquire the basic skills that serve as the foundation for later learning, and social and cognitive development. Moreover, these years are the time when families beliefs about their children s abilities are shaped and when children s own academic self-concepts begin to form. Therefore, management of family involvement in the early childhood education matters for young children s cognitive and social development, and learning. The ultimate goal of management at any level of education is the attainment of children s learning and holistic children development. Therefore, early childhood education should be structured and managed in such a way that family members are involved to facilitate children s holistic development and learning. That is, the early childhood context should be supportive and effective for family involvement in the early childhood education to enable children acquire appropriate...
