18 Times and That's a Fact: A Red-Eyed View of United's Record-Breaking Season

By Justin Blundell

Empire Publications Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, 18 Times and That's a Fact: A Red-Eyed View of United's Record-Breaking Season, Justin Blundell, This was the season when Sir Alex Ferguson's long-held wish to "knock Liverpool off their f**king perch" was made flesh. A season so successful that even European Cup Final defeat to Barcelona couldn't fully diminish the club's achievements. Justin Blundell tells the story of United's triumphs in a punchy, rabidly red-eyed review of every single match and goal. In the wake of the euphoria of Moscow it would have been excusable to regard what followed as an extended hangover. Yet the newly crowned European Champions became World Champions in December following their successful trip to the Far East and when they added the Carling Cup in March they held every honour possible excepting the FA Cup. All this despite a close season dominated by Cristiano Ronaldo's courtship by Real Madrid. This two month long tabloid extravaganza, coming just weeks after United's Moscow triumph, was only settled in mid-August. Then there was possibly the most unpredictable and sensational transfer deadline day in history -- if Manchester City's take-over by Arab billionaires beggared belief, their subsequent attempts to...
