European Curitrg fHission. SAMOKOV AND ITS OUT-STATIONS. Mr. House, writing from Samokov, April 30, gives a brief review of the present state of the mission work in connection with that station. The Girls School is moving on prosperously, with apparently more religious interest than during the previous year. Of the Institute the report is not quite so favorable, though a few of the students seem to be growing in Christian character. Mr. House writes: -- With regard to our general station work we can, on the whole, report progress. The Brothers Meetings of the church in Samokov, which occur once a month, and are a sort of experience-meetings open only to church members, have been for the...
